OPENING REMARKS 30

PODIUM MUSIC FADES OUT	LAVALIER, NO PODIUM	NAMEBAR	JESUS Our conference today has revolved around one simple motto: “The Sky’s the Limit.” Throughout the day, we’ve looked back on the chapters that have built up our great organization, witnessed the testimonials and memories of members throughout the years, and met some of the great leaders that have brought us to where we are today. Tonight, we urge you to reflect on the history that was all around you throughout the day. Regardless of our past success, know that the future is boundless, and each step in the positive direction will carry you to new heights. Despite the obstacles in your way, remember that you are on the right path to success and your persistence will propel you to the finish line.

Ohio FBLA, I would like to congratulate you for all you that have achieved and that you will continue to achieve in your future!

OPENING REMARKS (CONT.) 40

PODIUM	PODIUM	NAMEBAR	JENNY
NO MUSIC			FBLA thrives on preparing students to become future business leaders. This legacy that Ohio FBLA has built would not have been possible without the mentors and advisors that steer our students in the right direction. It is with the support and dedication of these mentors that our students have the ability and the opportunity to compete in competitive events and attend conferences like the one we are attending today. Mentors are meant to empower and that is exactly what Nell Rapport from Thomas W. Harvey High School has done for her students. Ms. Rapport started the Thomas W. Harvey chapter _ years ago and since then, has devoted her time to guiding each of her students to success. She has been able to send her FBLA students to highly selective summer programs at some of the nation’s most prestigious universities such as Yale University and Cornell University. Like her, every advisor, mentor, and teacher in attendance tonight have made a lasting impact on their students’ lives.

Lead Applause

Thank you, teachers, and advisers for all you have done for our organization and its members!

Riya to Podium

PODIUM	PODIUM	NAMEBAR	ELLE Tonight we would like to thank a very special group who has donated their time and energy to make this SLC experience one of a kind. Without these people, the legacy Ohio FBLA carries would not have been made possible. Our volunteers from across the country have helped our organization by supporting this year’s SLC. We are so fortunate to have their unyielding support and we truly appreciate it. As your name is called, please stand and continue to stand until all groups are called. Members and advisers, please hold your applause till the end. We begin with our Board of Directors. Would all Board members please rise?

MUSIC
CONTINUES

We continue with our competitive events committee, Benjamin Young, Jayne West McLinn, and Jr. Carlton.

Next we'll recognize our volunteer conference staff and special guests, Lisa Smothers, Arrav Dagar, Melissa Stone, Kobey Simpson, Megan Fishwick, and Alan Rep/kow/ski...

And finally, our volunteer judges, honored guests, exhibitors, and sponsors, please all rise.

We are honored to have you here with us to celebrate Ohio FBLA and thankful to you for all of your hard work and efforts that have made this conference such a success!

PODIUM	PODIUM	NAMEBAR	HAMSA Before we continue with the events of the evening, let’s all take a second to recognize the impact of Ohio FBLA. Over 50,000 students have sat in your very seats, participating in Ohio FBLA to become more community minded business leaders. These leaders have gone on to the biggest colleges, the most successful companies, and most importantly, left a lasting impact of success on their peers. Members and Advisers, use this moment to reflect on why you joined FBLA. What about this club stood out to you? What do you want to do as a part of FBLA? What impact do you want to leave on your local and state chapters?
	STAGE WASH UP	FS: BUMPER,

MUSIC CONTINUES			With FBLA, the possibilities are endless and no obstacle is unattainable. When the sky’s the limit, there is no telling just how far Ohio FBLA can take you. Aliya to the Podium
----------------------------	--	--	--

PODIUM	PODIUM ONLY	NAMEBAR	ALIYA Before we take a break to eat, please listen to these important instructions! We ask that you please... remain... seated until an official comes to your table to release you. Once released, please quickly leave the room to grab your food from the designated buffet station. We will resume once all students have had a chance to begin their meal. Before we enjoy the food, let's have a moment of silence to express our thankfulness. (pause - 5 seconds) Thank you. We will now have a brief intermission for dinner. Again, please remain seated until your table is called.

Are you ready to find out which chapter today's spelling champs will come from?! This should be fun to watch and I'm excited to host. As our Chapter Spellers join us on stage, I'll let you in on a few ground rules before we begin. This will be a single elimination bee. If a student spells a word incorrectly, they will remain until one of the spellers following them spell the word correctly, and then take their seat. If no one spells that word correctly, it will be tossed out. There will be one primary speller for each team. Their two “ask-a-friends” will stand behind them, assisting only one time, on request and then taking their seat.

Students will have 15 seconds to spell their word. If necessary, they may ask for either a definition or example sentence.

Spellers: Please remember to let me know when you want to use your ask-a-friend.

Ready? Here we go, starting with...

Spelling Bee

Thank you to our spelling bee participants for taking part in the spelling bee today.
